

Greater Philadelphia Corporate Volunteer Council Membership

Hosted by Philadelphia Foundation, the Greater Philadelphia Corporate Volunteer Council (GPCVC) is a community of practice sharing best practices, growing networks and being a thought leader in community engagement.

WHAT WE DO

GPCVC helps strategically guide corporate volunteerism throughout the Greater Philadelphia region. We leverage the expertise of organizations that practice corporate social responsibility (CSR) to help educate, influence, and amplify our collective impact around corporate volunteerism. In 2021, the GPCVC was recognized as “CVC Of The Year” by Points of Light for success in maximizing its operations, effectiveness, and accomplishments.

Creating and driving a CSR strategy that aligns with business imperatives is part art, part science. Done well, a company’s CSR approach will bolster talent acquisition and retention, contribute to revenue goals, and differentiate your brand. However, figuring out the right formula for your organization can be daunting. The GPCVC is the only regional membership organization whose sole purpose is to help companies maximize their CSR impact through community engagement.
